

HELLO EVERYBODY!

Have you heard of the story HORATIUS AND THE BRIDGE?*

Before the better known Roman Empire, Rome started out as a small city state, first a kingdom, then a republic. The story takes place during the early years of the Roman Republic. Horatius Cocles was an officer in the army of the old Roman Republic, who defended a bridge in 508 BC against an attacking army to protect Rome from invasion.

Today you will listen to the story Horatius and the bridge in your books on page 85. But first have a look at these words:

huge empire – ogromno cesarstvo

throne – prestol

gather a large army – zbrati veliko vojsko

march - korakati

guard – čuvati

For more new words check the list in your workbook on page 85. (Če ne razumeš besed, si pomagaj s slovarčkom v DZ str. 85).
